Important Note: IRS Life Expectancy Tables apply to all required distributions. These tables are available from the IRS in Publication 590, available from the IRS website at www.irs.gov, or by calling their forms and publications number (800) 829-3676. Please consult your attorney, accountant, or other tax advisor for additional information. Please note that you are required to take a minimum distribution from your IRA by April 1 of the year following the year you attain age 70 ½ and the end of that year and of each year thereafter based on your single or joint life expectancy, as elected, determined by the appropriate IRS life expectancy tables. Remember that there are penalties for not paying enough tax during the year, either through withholding or estimated tax payments. New retirees, especially, should see IRS Publication 505 and review the tax requirements and penalties in detail. A 50% penalty applies for failure to take your required minimum distribution on time. Please review your IRA Disclosure Statement for complete details and rules pertaining to your IRA account.
